DEPUTIES' MEETING

Wednesday, 21 July 1954

PRESENT: Mr. Dulles, Mr. Wisner, Mr. Amory, Col. White, Messrs. Kirkpatrick, Helms, Bissell, Sheldon,

[REDACTED]

Mr. Dulles:

a. Stated that as soon as the agreement on the peace settlement in Indochina is received he desired it be carefully studied in order that we might immediately proceed to draw up our future plans for this area. [REDACTED]

c. Approved the IG proposal that he prepare a monthly news letter be sent from headquarters to the field.

d. Noted that in his conversation with Deputy Secretary of Defense Anderson on 19 July, he (DCI) had discussed U. S. military missions in general and, in particular, the Director said he had recommended to the Secretary that the mission to Guatamala be beefed up in order to increase the efficiency of that country's army. TOP SECRET

Mr. Wisner:

a. Stated that Dr. Horace F. Craig of the OCB Staff had reported to him that the President had stepped up his interest in foreign and U. S. propaganda to include RFE, VOA and material that might be contained in U. S. publications, and he (Craig) was seeking a central point in the government where an analysis of this material might be made. The Director said that this problem clearly cut across the lines of State, Defense, USIA and CIA, and therefore was a matter for consideration by the OCB. He would, therefore, mention this at today's meeting.

Col. White: if possible

a. Received the Director's approval to go ahead with the transfer of that portion of the Government Printing Office now located in South Building to CIA and relocating it in our printing plant Col. White said that if we could receive approval of this transfer he believed we could save about $200,000.00 per annum on our printing cost and further that the 120 people who would be added to our payroll as a result of this transfer can be absorbed in this year's budget.

Mr. Helms:

a. Noted that General Clark intended to visit additional places in South America and asked
